

Draft Agenda

5th Idaho Cybersecurity Interdependencies Summit

April 29, 2019

8:30am – Introductions and Summit Agenda Overview

8:45am Welcome - Brad Richy, Director Idaho Office of Emergency Management

9:00 am Idaho Information Technology Services,

Jeff Weak, Administrator, Office of Information Technology Services.

2019 Idaho Legislative updates. The best ways to stay updated in the field of cybersecurity.

9:30am Ransomware Briefing on specific case studies

10:00am Table discussions: Is your business/agency vulnerable?

Give your own examples of response, recovery and mitigation. Share resource information.

10:45 Networking Break

11:00- Cyber Interdependencies: Bottlenecks in cyber traffic, sensitive nodes and how we are planning and protecting infrastructure.

Case study for the northwest. The convergence of physical security and cybersecurity and possible cascading impacts across the region.

Michael Boyle, Strategic Planning Director, Westin Building Exchange.

11:30 National Cyber Exercise and Planning Program – Overview of free resources available to assist your organization in planning and exercises

Erin C. Horbal, Department of Homeland Security.

Cyber Exercise Planner, National Cyber Exercise and Planning Program

Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency

11:45-12:00 Break and lunch service

12:00pm Lunch Introduction and Keynote TBA

1:00-1:50pm The Federal Dam Agency: Contractors and Inside Jobs - Court Case Enactment

Susan Buxton, Idaho Division of Human Resources

MacKenzie Brown, OPTIV

Brad Fraser, Hawley Troxell

Clark Harshbarger, FBI

Lee Holcomb, Holcomb consulting, law and cybersecurity,

Claire Rosston, Holland Hart

JR Tietsort, Core Scientific

Paul Wilch, Hawley Troxell

Draft Agenda

1:50-2:00pm Audience Jury Deliberation Judge Claire Rosston (Holland and Hart)

2:00pm ID National Lab: Ralph Ley. INL Critical Infrastructure Protection Training.

Highlight developing programs and ongoing preparation for cybersecurity specialists. The Aurora Project and its impact on cybersecurity. What does INL do on behalf of Idaho; INL collaborations with Idaho universities, public agencies and private sector.

2:45pm-3:00pm BREAK

3:00pm Private sector panel:

Cloud computing protection, Microsoft

3:45pm Wrap-Up. Brad Richy, Director Idaho Office of Emergency Management

4:00-5:00pm Networking Social