

Idaho Cybersecurity Interdependencies Workshop

Explore the growing challenges of cybersecurity and its impact on overall economic and physical security at the Idaho Cybersecurity Interdependencies Workshop hosted by the Idaho Office of Emergency Management and the Center for Regional Disaster Resilience.

SPECIAL TRACK FOR SMALL BUSINESS LEADERS

- Hear the latest cyber threats to small business
- Learn the best practices for addressing these threats with limited resources
- Meet other small business leaders and learn how working together will reduce your vulnerabilities
- The track is not designed for technical staff, but for leaders who must address the cyber risk along with other risks to their businesses

➤ Featuring: Lt. Governor Brad Little, Idaho and Brigadier General Brad Richy, Idaho Office of Emergency Management

➤ Full agenda and speaker information available at www.regionalresilience.org

➤ Beginners to experts welcome! All stakeholders are invited, including executive leadership, HR, and legal

➤ Registration is complimentary and includes lunch and reception

Visit www.regionalresilience.org for more information or contact Brandon Hardenbrook at (206) 443-7723 or Brandon@pnwer.org

WHEN: September 12, 2016, 9:00AM – 5:00PM
WHERE: St Alphonsus Regional Medical Center
1055 N Curtis Road
Boise, ID

COST: Complimentary
REGISTER:

www.regionalresilience.org

In the face of emerging risks to economic and national security, action is needed to address crucial regional infrastructure interdependencies in energy, telecommunications, transportation, water systems and other infrastructures

Third in a three year series meant to develop an Idaho Partnership for Infrastructure Security, the workshop advances cross-sector initiatives.